After the first half hour the market became more irregular, some covering of shorts being induced by the publi-cation of more favorable crop and weather advices. On extremely light dealings New York Central fell nearly a point on the statement of earnings for the March quarter showing a decrease in surplus, after fixed charges, of $826,983. By the end of the first hour the market had quieted down, but the tone continued unsettled. Governments, unchanged; other bonds were quiet. Although there was an apparent difference of about % per cent between the New York and London markets, the arbitage houses were able to do only 3,000 to 4,000 shares in all. The general market met considerable selling by strong commission houses, although the amounts would not have been important in a wider market. The bond market is quiet. WASHINGTON STOCK MARKET

IN COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, May 19.-Although ca-les from Liverpool were satisfactory, and despite the fact that prices on the call here showed little change from last night, it was evident that a bearish sentiment still prevailed in local circles. An attack on July, after the call sent it off to 13.02. Some big stop loss or-ders were caught on the break, and the New Orleans market showed decided heaviness. With weather conditions through the South improved, new crop positions tumbled more rapidly than has been their custom of late. The decline was stayed, however, by efforts of shorts to get profits, and it was quickly bid up to 13.10 for July.

Steps on a Unicycle Tomorrow

Evening.

Tomorrow evening Stuart G. Franz the noted unicyclist and trick bicyclist, will attempt the dangerous feat of riding down the Capitol steps on a unicycle If this feat, which not only requires great skill, but must be done at great risk of life and limb, is successfully ac-complished, the rider will undertake the still more dangerous feat of riding the

Mr. Franz is also a cycle whirl rider and is booked for the season with the famous Baker troupe with the original famous Bease cycle whirl.

As a trial Franz rode down sixteen of the steps, and thinks he will have no trouble in going down all of them without injury. He has ridden across the cycle on the rail, employrouble in going out injury. He has ridden across the Cabin John Bridge on the rail, employing a trick bicycle, but has never tried it on a unicycle.

Creditors representing 51 per cent of the total amount of claims against the suspended brokerage firm of Floyd, Crawford & Co. have agreed to an offer made by James C. Lenney, attorney for the partners, on the basis of 10 per cent in cash and the remainder in notes run ning from one to twenty-eight months The settlement is practically the same as that offered shortly after the suspension, and it was necessary only to get the assent of 51 per cent of the creditors to dissolve the receivership.

bear trader asked, disputing the bullish views of a fellow trader. 'I suppose it could," replied the bull trader, "Well could," replied the bull trader. "Well, couldn't St. Paul sell at par again?" persisted the bear. "It sold at 75 only a few years ago." "Yes," said the bull trader, "that's the way you talk. When St. Paul sold at 75 the sites on which you see more than half of these big office buildings were occupied by two and three story rookeries. Couldn't these office buildings be torn down and the rookeries put back?" Franz Will Attempt to Ride Down the

An interesting feature of the London market yesterday was an advance of 2 points in the Japanese 4 per cent bonds, which brought their price to the Jan-uary level, showing a full recovery of the 10 point decline which took place after the outbreak of the war between Japan and Russia. This movement of ernment bond may be taken as good indication of Japan's credit, and he same thing may be said of Russia's credit which is measured in the secur-ity market by a net decline of 7½ points in the Russian 4 per cent bonds since the first gun was fired in the present contest in the Far East.
